Dear Lisa
This poem is for you.

But don't forget!

get close with it
But anyway, you're sweet those were your hard head, but you lost your cap but I love

I still love
you

1979 Chieftain

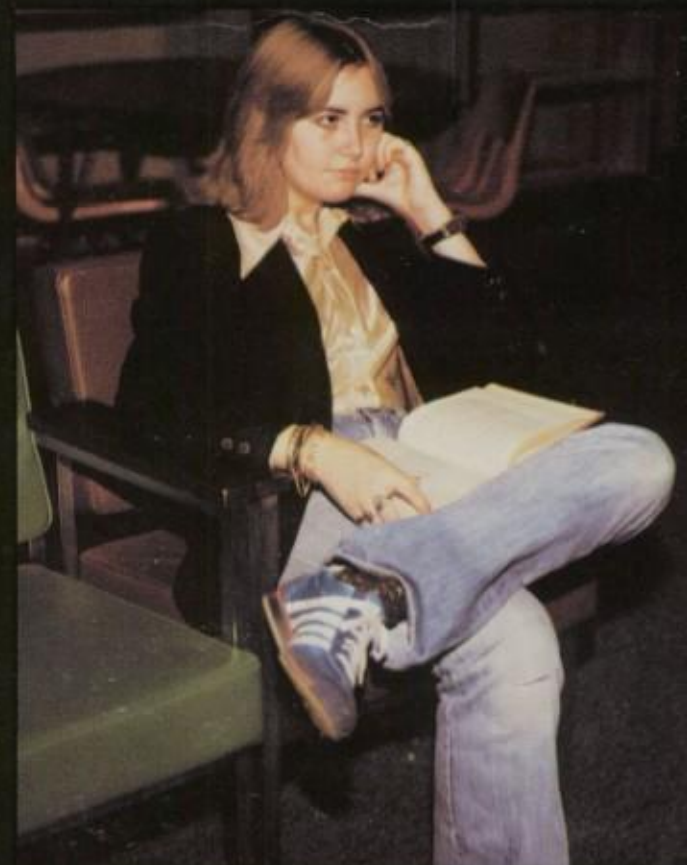

*Every thought is a dream,
Rushing as the streams,
Putting life in our kingdom of doing.*

Trying on her graduation gown, Jeanne Ryan ponders over her future.

Avis Butts learns the duties of being a teacher while she works as an elementary school aide.

Lisa Proulx wanders from her reading to a quick day-dream.

Trophies, letters, rings and report cards are mere mementoes of the hard work and training done by many students.

Members of the Cross Country team rejoice after capturing first place in the Frank Keyser Invitational meet.

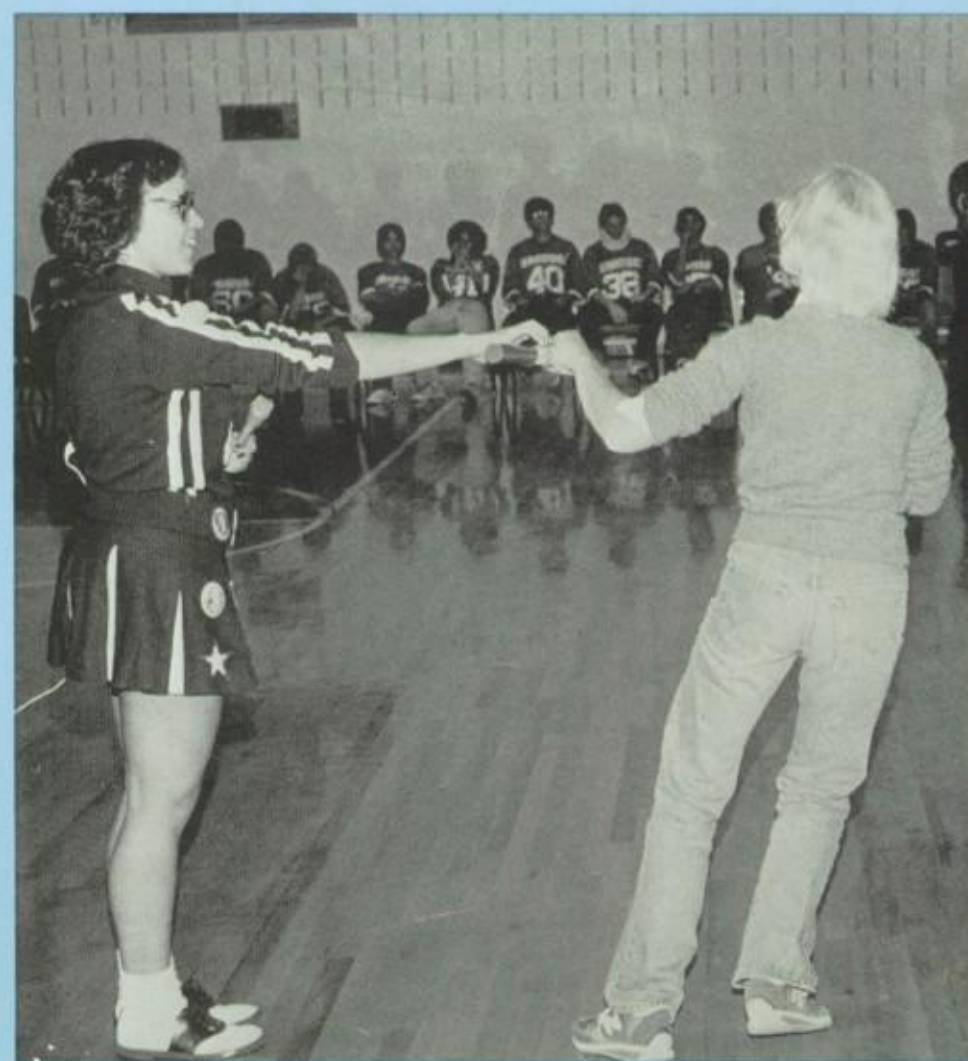

Jody Miller, Brenda Mongan, Edwina Babington, Connie Knight and Kendra Williams appear to be in a daze after the Homecoming ceremonies.

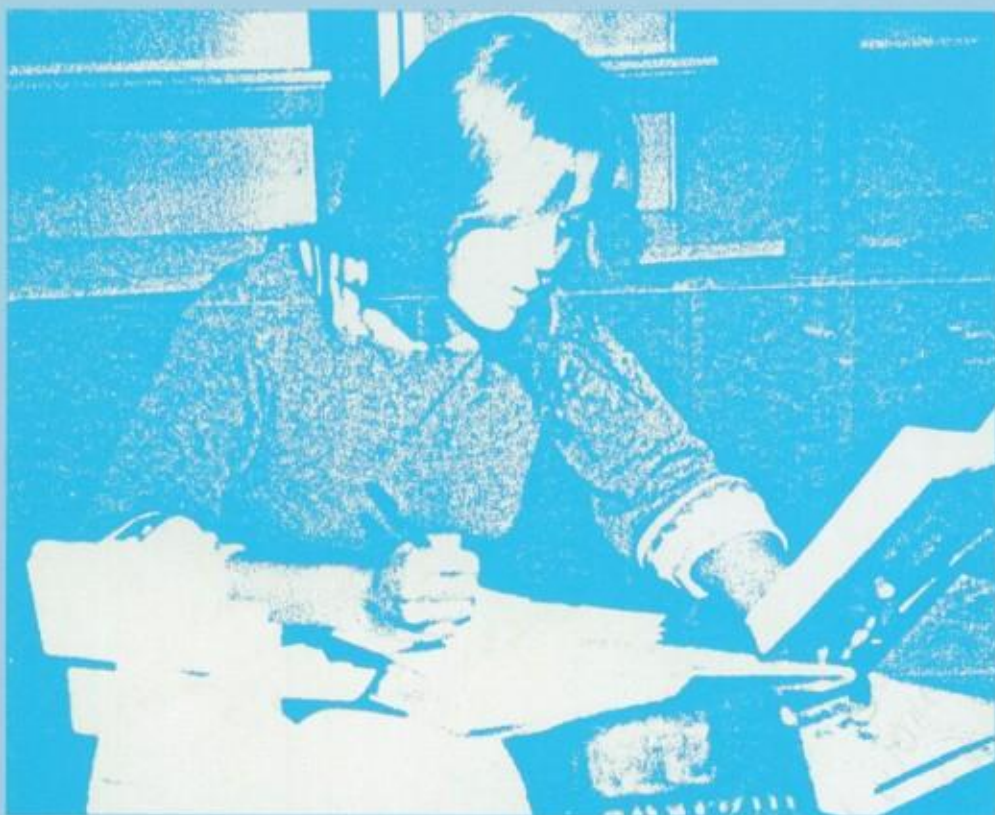

Scott Poffenberger leaps high in his shot, hoping to add two to the score.

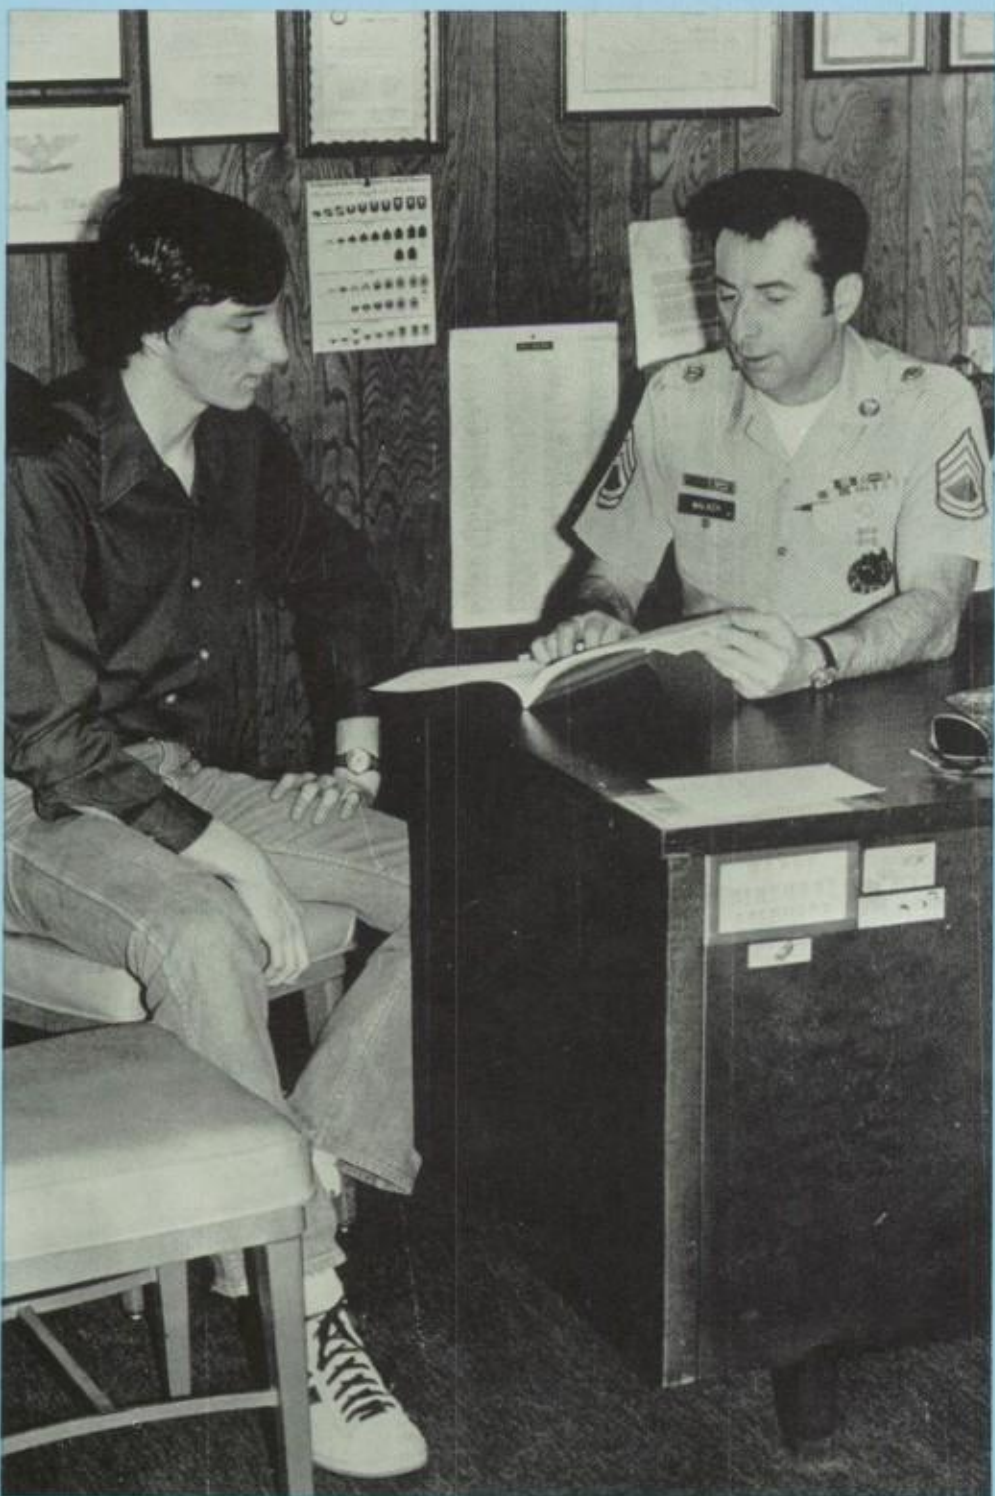

Service with a smile is Robin Shumaker's motto while she works a part-time job at the Boonsboro Big Tee Family Restaurant.

After the Junior Class displayed their spirit, Teresa Huffer presented Ginny Falck with the spirit stick.

Virginia Stafford spent many long hours preparing her detailed term paper.

Before enlisting in the Army, Paul Biser explored many areas and talked with many different people.

A small stream is no obstacle for Kevin Drury in his race for the finish line.

*It's your day, shining day,
As all your dreams come true.
In your stride, you glide with the wind.*

*Our minds will explore
together,
The old worlds we've
conquered forever.
Then we will live in love
together, as one.*

Jeff Taulton presents the newly crowned Homecoming queen, Kendra Williams, with a gift from the Varsity Club.

Everyone wondered what gave Leslie Roll such enthusiasm as she emerged from the spirit box, during a pep rally skit.

Debbie Long, Deena Mose, and Debbie Mullendore return to their childhood for a trip down the sliding board.

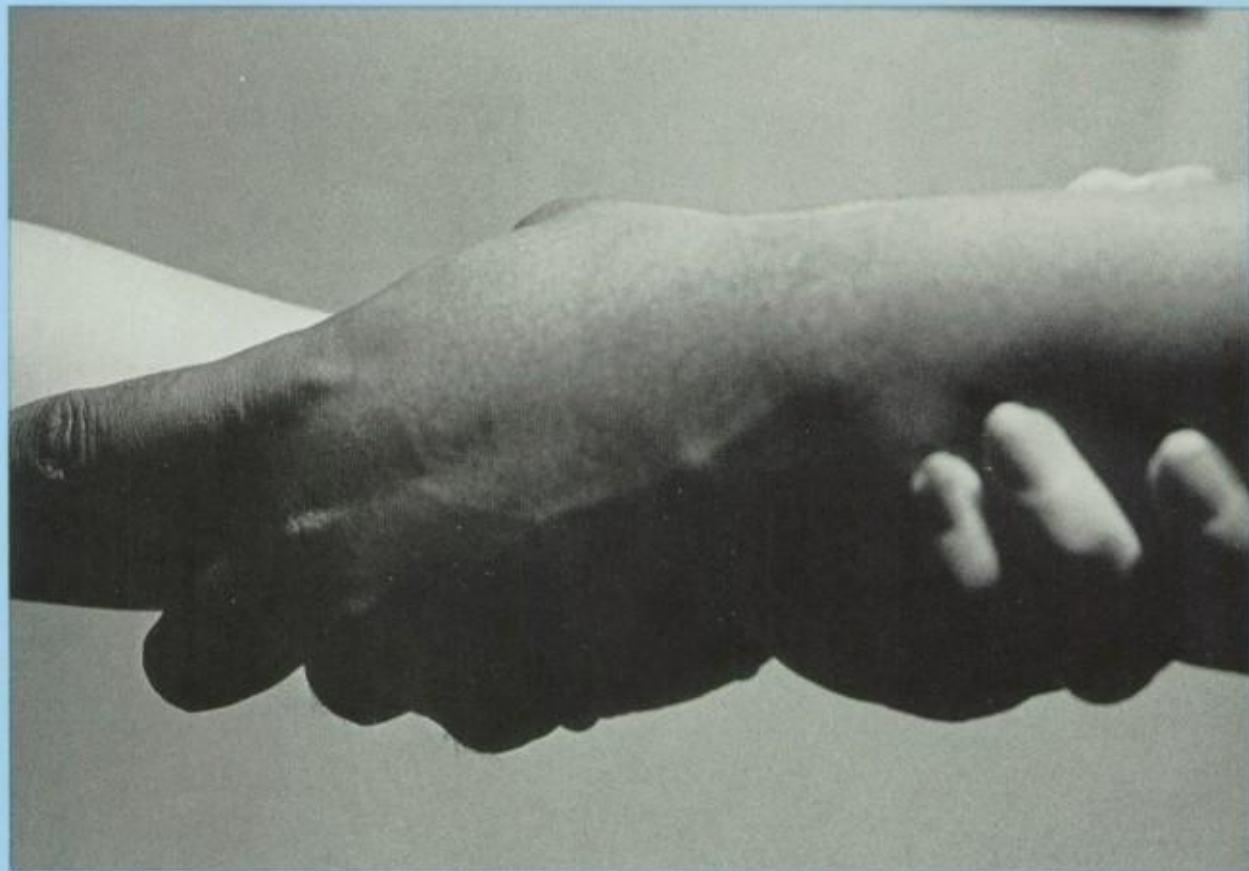

An unidentified student scouts for excitement from his perch in the Valley Mall.

Randy Leatherman and Lisa Semler enjoy the magic of a tender kiss.

Hands clasp, not in fear, but in friendship.

Backs were straight and notes were balanced as the BHS band marched off with second place in the Mummer's Day Parade.

Leslie Roll shouts her victory wishes to the Warrior team.

Wishing for a bulls-eye, Stacey Walker draws back the arrow.

*Come to see victory,
In our land of fantasy,
Loving life a new decree,
Brings our lives to everlasting liberty.*

*You will find other kinds,
That have been in search of you.
Many lives have brought you to,
Recognize it's your life in review.*

Doug Frushour, Jeff Birkey, Curtis Berry, and Randy Stevens video-taped customers at the Valley Mall during the art show.

This vicious character represents the football teams defensive image.

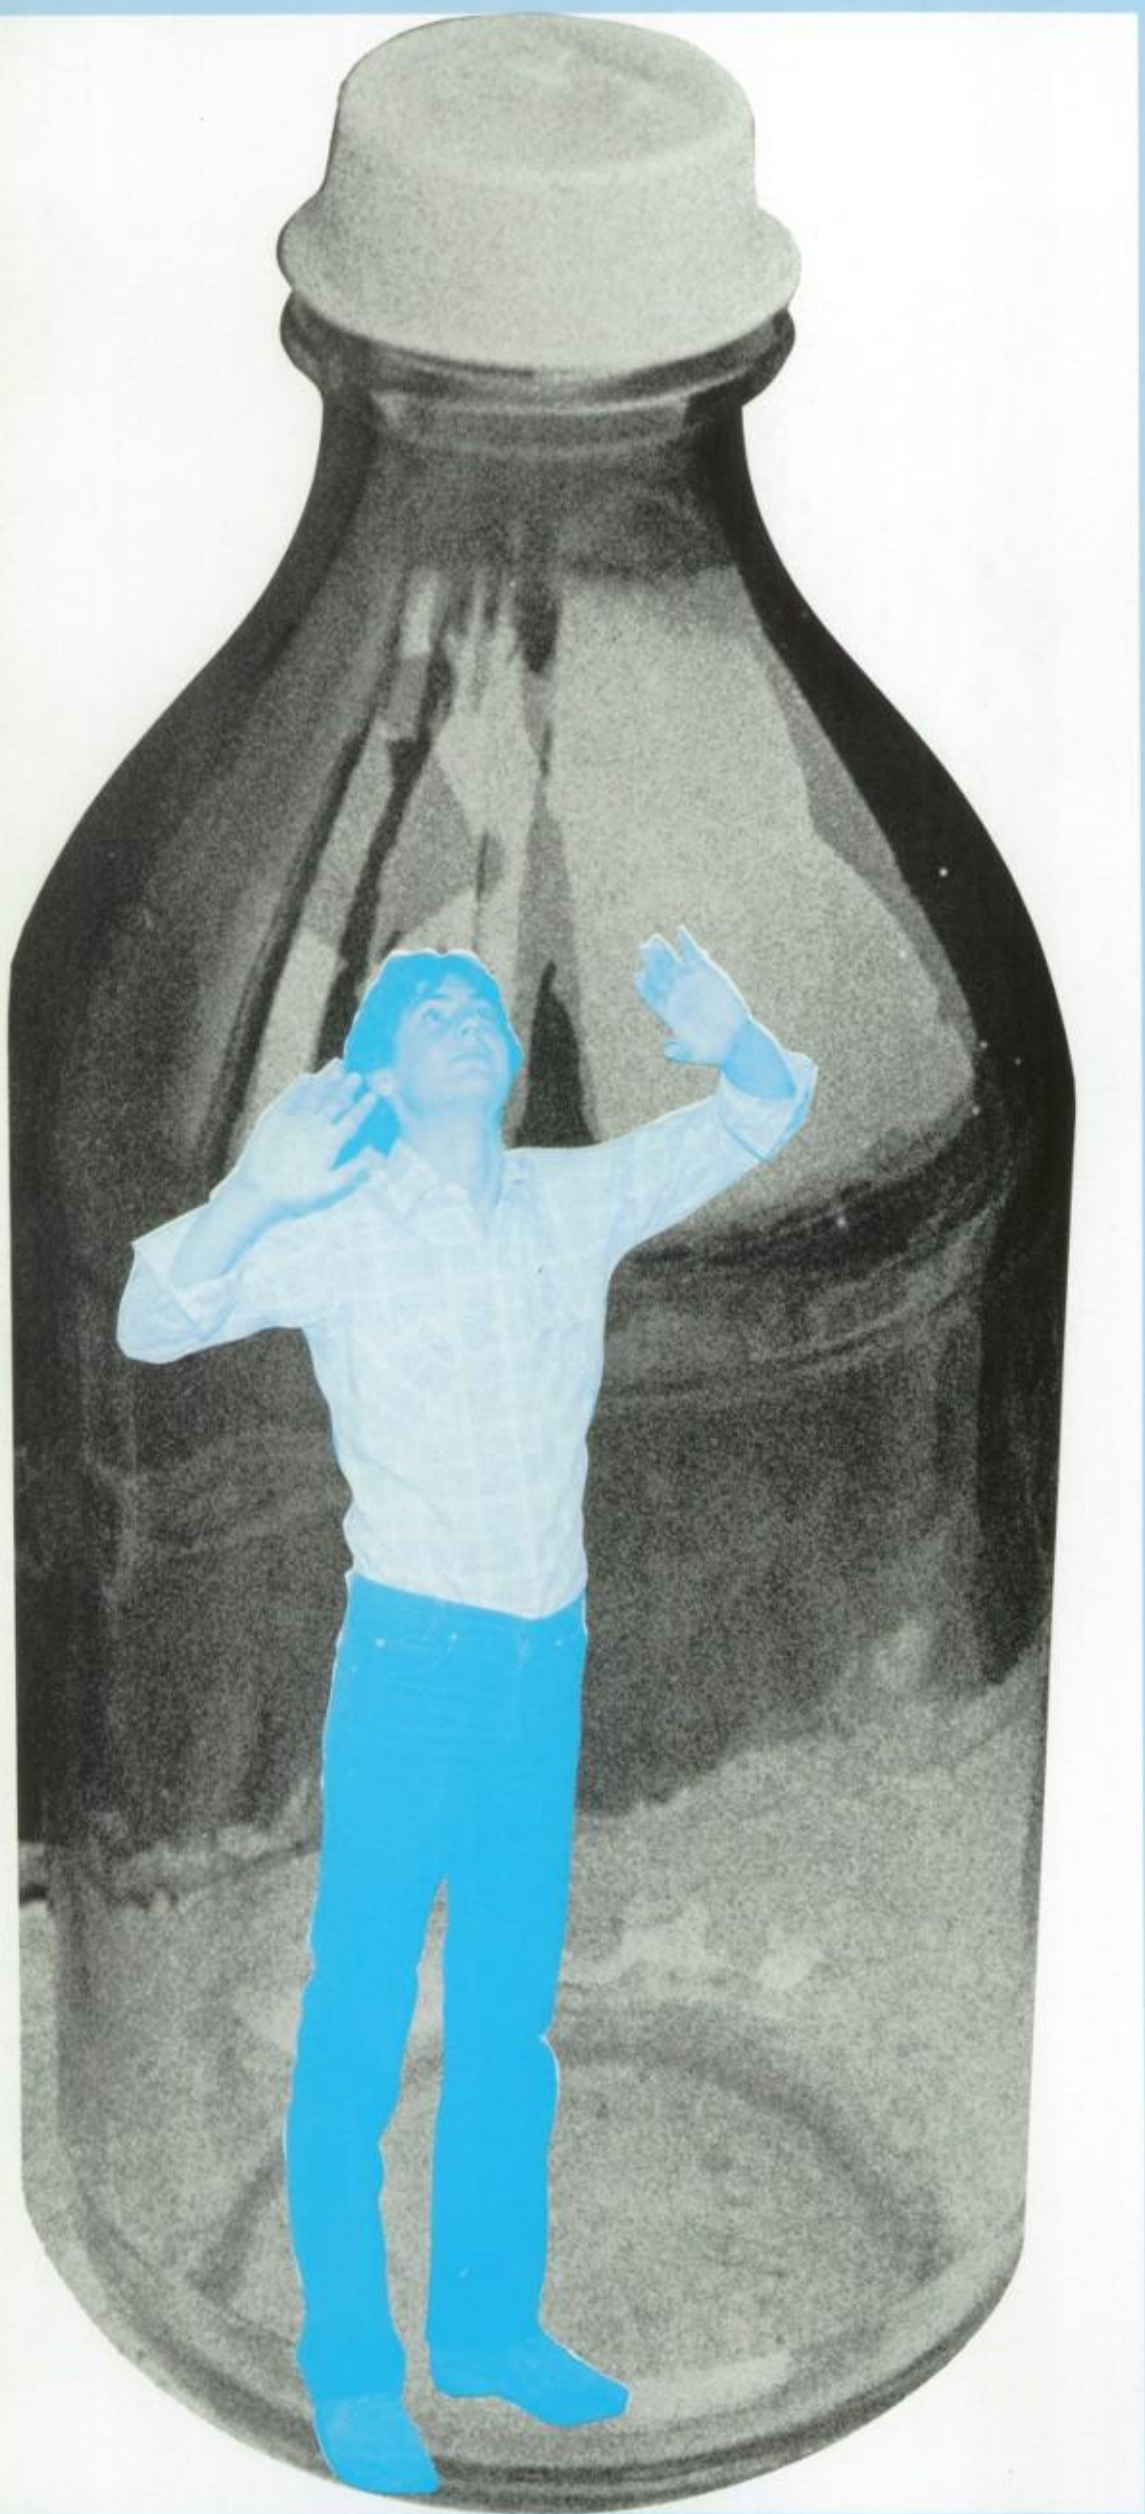

BHS remembered Mickey Mouse as he celebrated his fiftieth birthday this year.

Displaying their acting abilities, Holly Rowland, Regan Bailey, and Diane Warrenfeltz helped the Freshman Class win the Best Play award in the Tournament of Plays.

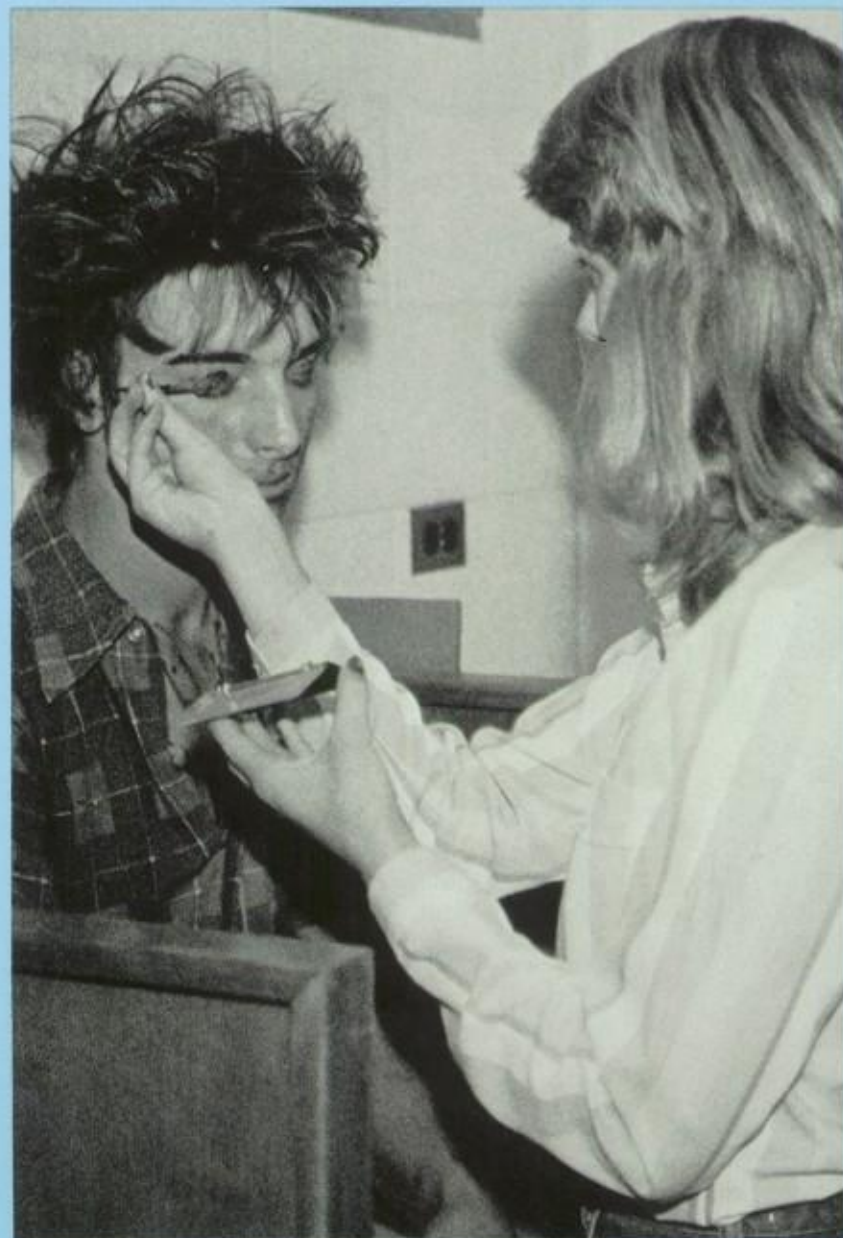

Renee Massie blended many of her talents to take first place in the Talent Show.

Dave Bittle has trouble escaping the hardships and hassels of high school life.

Aware of a mysterious force around her, Julie Bowland performs a scene in Company H Theatre Workshop's production of Dracula.

Robyn Clark creates a special image by applying stage makeup on Dale Beard.

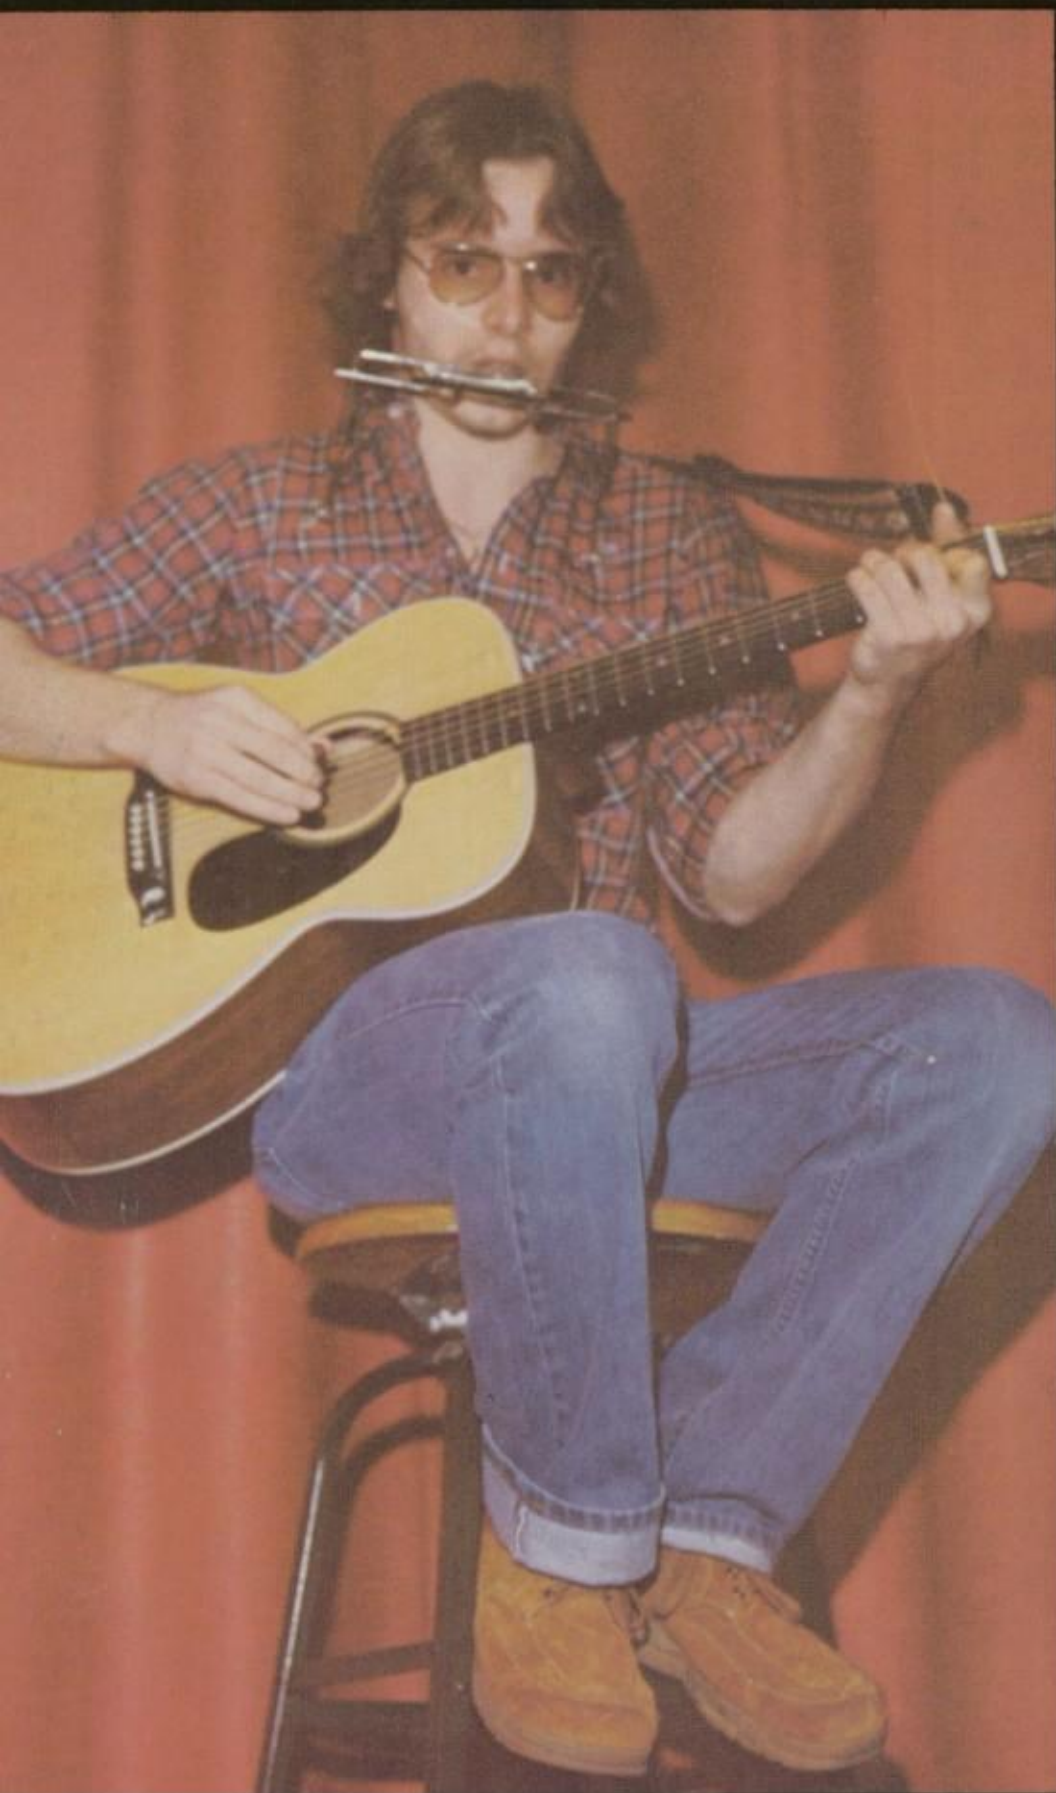

With the aid of a little imagination, Sarah Draper transformed bits of paper into a jolly Santa Claus.

Jon Roll, Amy Boyce and Charles Bell rehearse a "trust walk" for the Senior Class play.

*As you stay for the play,
Fantasy has in store for you,
A glowing light will see you
through.
Give a smile, that's all you have to do.*

Kelly Flory and Wendy Bithner act in a spoof of The Adam's Family.

John Hose composes a song to express his inner feelings.

Even old pop cans can become a piece of art.

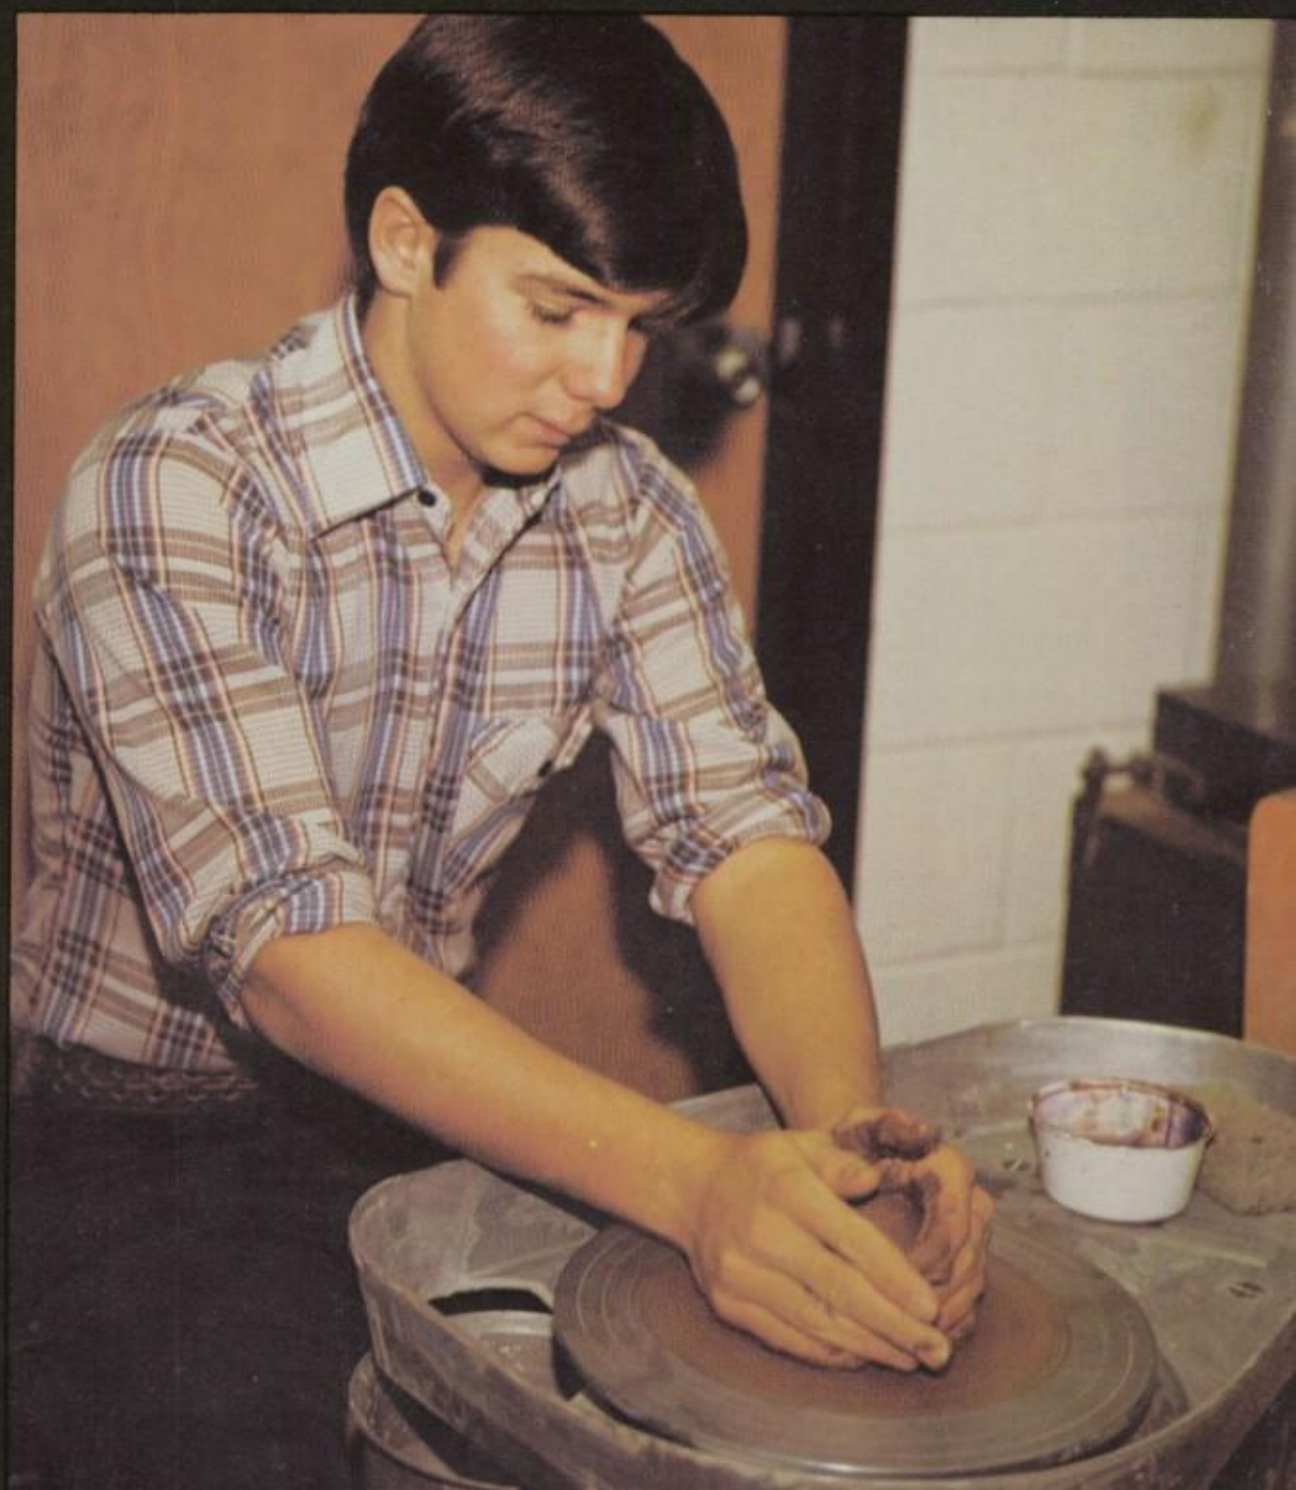

Janine Otto, Julie Hannigan, Renee Massie and Connie Knight reflect their

*And we will live together,
Untill the twelfth of never,
Our voices will ring forever, as one.*

George Schamel and David Ritenour create many special effects by controlling the light panel.

A glob of clay will become a beautiful peice of pottery if Curtis Berry is successful.

personalities by sporting the lastest fashions.

*Our minds will explore
together,
The old worlds, we've
conquered, forever.
Then we will expand love
together,
As one.*

More than 200 seniors filed into the gymnasium, June fourth, to the music of Pomp and Circumstance. Dressed in cap and gown, they became the twentieth graduating class at BHS.

With the aide of various faculty members, they produced the Senior Class play, The Nut Factory, and the first student produced and directed newscast, 10-Minutes W-BHS.

The class of '79 was looked on, by both teachers and students, as a very talented class. This year's seniors prevailed in academic schooling, as well as their artistic creativity. Their class gift, a computer, is to be used in a computer course to be offered in the upcoming years.

Under the watchful eyes of many spectators, Dave Kiracofe, Wina Babington, Jon Roll, and Connie Knight anxiously await the final result of the Homecoming vote.

CLASS CABINET: Kneeling: E. Babington. Second Row: J. Delaney, A. Falck, J. Kline, R. Massie, K. Williams.

MOTTO — Now is the time to make our dreams reality, to set our ambitions, and to reach our goals.

UNDERCLASSMEN

New Upperclassmen Have Challenging Projects

The class of '80 entered their junior year amidst many financial difficulties and rising inflation. Despite this situation, the juniors energetically worked to boost their depleted treasury.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Pat Lemkuhl, the annual talent show was held January 25. The presentation satirized television programs and commercials, and was a tremendous success, netting a profit of over $1,000.00. With the condition of their funds somewhat improved, the class of '80 began work on the Junior-Senior Prom. Much planning and work brought the prom theme, "Summer in the South" to life, May 11, in the Venice Ballroom.

CLASS OFFICERS: Front row: A. Frushour, Treasurer; Mrs. P. Lemkuhl, Advisor; L. Rasmussen, Secretary; Back row: D. Angle, President; S. Haines, Vice President.

Sophomore Sales Successful

The class of '81, now adjusted to the high school life, entered a year of hectic studies and activities. Under the supervision of Mrs. Jan Williams, the class prepared for their yearly project. To raise money they sold Tootsie Roll candy banks at $1.50 apiece. Ambitious salesmen and women sold door to door and to friends and relatives. Prizes such as cameras, calculators and radios were awarded to the students with highest sales. Raising over $1,000.00 the class boosted their treasury to approximately $5,000.00. The funds will be used in the production of the 1980 junior-senior prom.

Evidence of the sophomore class sales if found throughout the school.

Freshmen Discover Time To Do Their Own Thing

A large class of 281 freshmen joined the ranks of BHS in September, and displayed tremendous spirit for their new school by being awarded the spirit drum at the first pep assembly.

During December the freshmen sold cloth calendars for $3.15. Making $1.00 profit on each sale the class raised a tidy sum of $2,220.00 to be used on the production of their junior year talent show and prom.

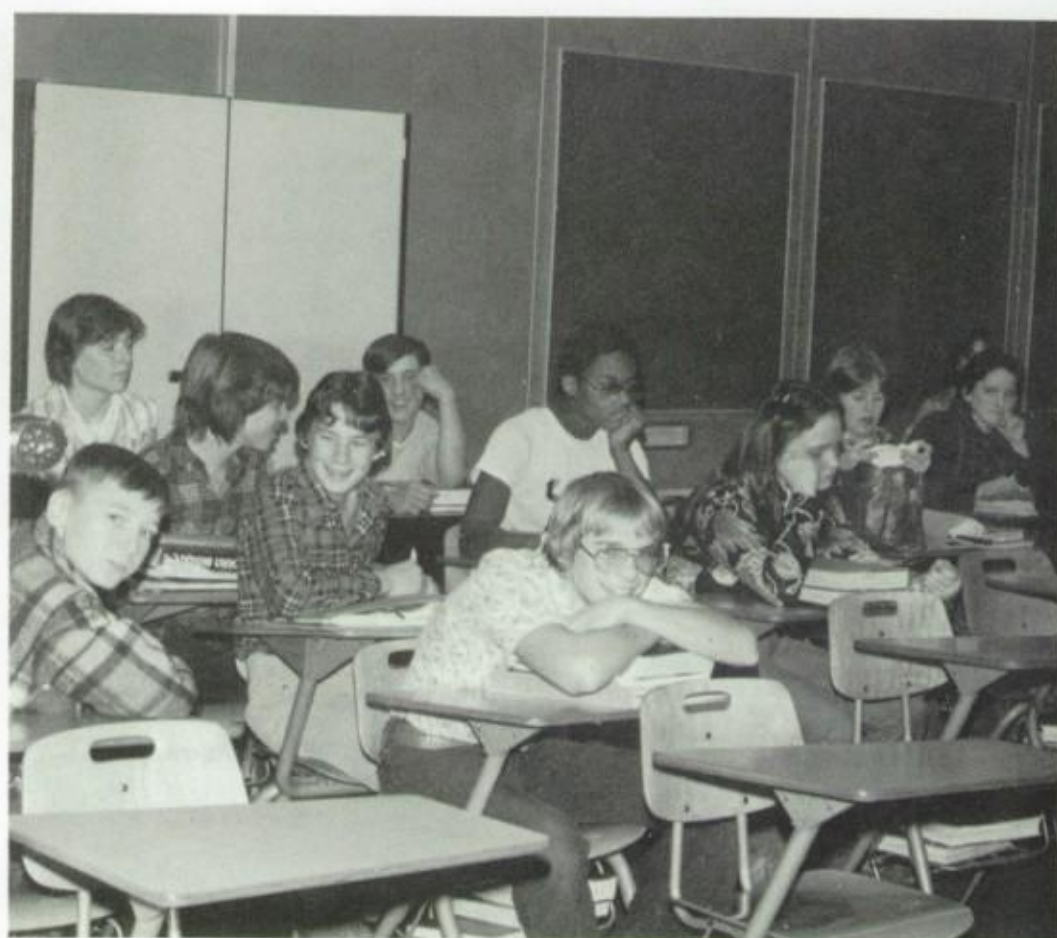

Approximately 2220 calendars, in six designs, were sold by the energetic freshmen with prizes being awarded to those with high sales.

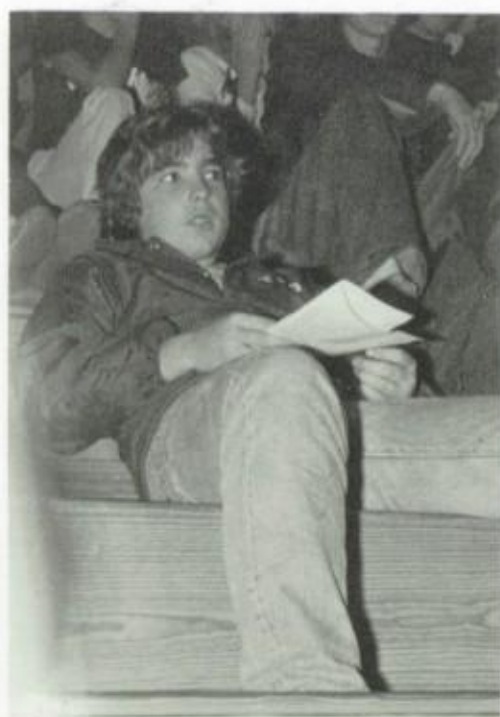

FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS: J. Rasmussen, Vice-president; H. Rowland, Secretary; Miss R. Andres, Advisor; J. MacMichael, Treasurer; B. Dowin, President.

Calendars were converted to cash for the Freshman class.

ACTIVITIES

Chieftain Expands Coverage,

Change was the key word as Chieftain staff members began work early in the summer, adding many new ideas and special effects to the Chieftain. Working diligently, the staff rearranged sections and experimented with new techniques. Recognizing the importance of total school coverage, the Chieftain strived for a realistic picture of every class. The theme "Fantasy" inspired staff members to use their imaginations and talents in the attempt to present the best and most vivid yearbook possible. The small staff was advised by Mrs. Becky Neifirk and was well supported financially, due to the tremendous efforts of the patron staff.

Practice and Precision

During the hot August nights, when most people are relaxing in their cool homes, more than 100 students were working and sweating til dark. These people were members of the 1978-79 BHS band, who began work on the football half-time show during summer vacation. The memorization of music and field commands paid off as the band produced an excellent show and Showcase of Bands performance.

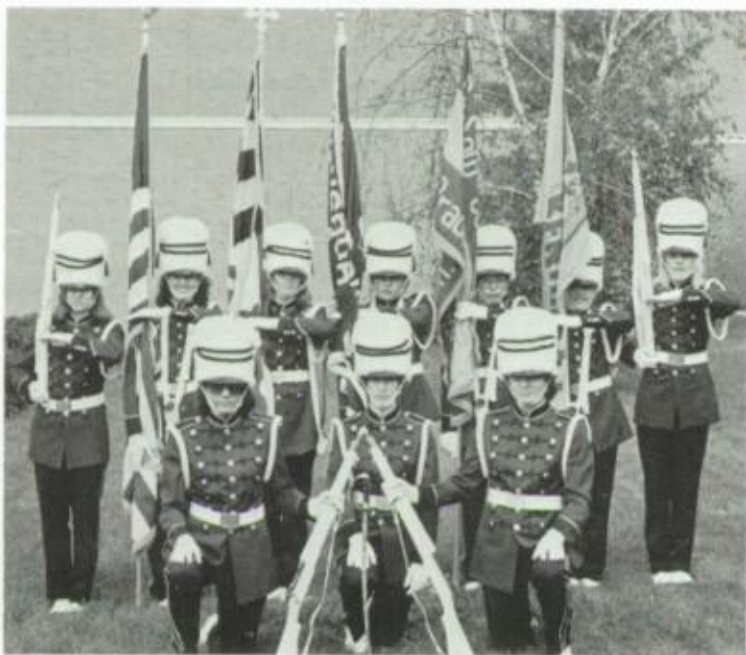

The band's finest performance was a second place in the Apple Blossom Parade held in Winchester, Virginia. There the band competed in the largest band category and with groups from 14 states. The group also marched away with second prize in the annual Mummer's Parade and two first place honors in both the Frederick Fall Festival and the Chambersburg Parades.

As the weather turned cooler the members turned to more classical selections and produced two outstanding indoor concerts. Christmas carols echoed through the halls in December and the band played to a sell-out crowd during the Spring Concert.

Other activities included candy sales, sub sales, and participation in the All-County Band. The busy year wound down and concluded with performances in the Sharpsburg and Boonsboro parades and a concert at the Strawberry Festival in June.

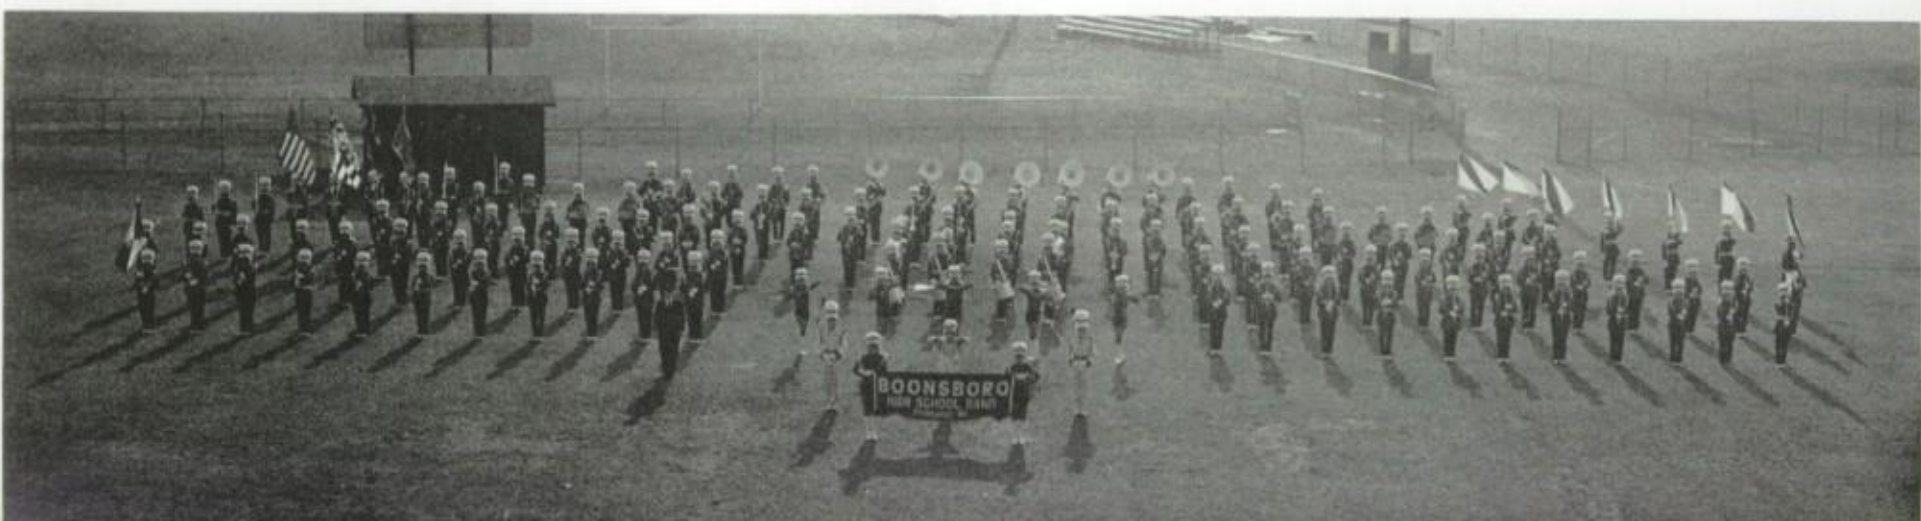

The brass section shines as its members perform selected Christmas carols.

Urges Student Interest

Advisor, Mrs. Ursula Riley pauses to chat and share refreshments with Melissa LaBrush and Jayne Barr.

Protecting student rights, setting an example, and looking out for student interests are all responsibilities entrusted to a member of the student government. This highly respected organization has been extremely active during the past year.

The student government organized and held freshmen orientation during the first week of school. Following tradition, the council also sponsored a five day spirit week as a forerunner to the homecoming festivities. The week culminated in a dance honoring the queen, and featuring the band, Everybody's Brother.

As in past years, the council sponsored teacher appreciation day in February, giving students an opportunity to participate in the administration of our school. A blood drive, recruiting student volunteers, was a new project for the council members. With great student involvement and a large turnout the project was a tremendous success, as BHS had the second highest donation of the area schools.

Drama Club Sponsors Successful Productions

Many BHS students were given the opportunity to display their dramatic talents as Drama Club members.

Under the skilled supervision of Mr. Gene Ford members took part in a BHS presentation of "Carousel".

During November the club also sponsored the annual tournament of plays, enabling the freshmen, sophomore, and junior members to stage and perform, each in their own one-act plays. These plays were judged and awards were presented to outstanding actors and actresses.

Choral Groups Blend Harmoniously

In conjunction with the Potomac Symphony Orchestra and the St. Cecilia Choir, fifty chorus members participated in the All-County Chorus production of The Messiah. Under the direction of Mr. Gene Ford, this was the largest representation from any county school in the program. The event was held at the Maryland Theater in December. Also, working with the All-County Band, they staged a performance at North Hagerstown High School in March.

During the early spring months, the entire chorus practiced diligently to present the annual musical, Carousel, and the spring concert which featured a variety of rock and traditional tunes. In addition, six members were chosen to participate in the All-State Chorus held in Baltimore.

Business Boosts Largest Membership

Melinda Noble presents Mr. Paul Kline with a gift of gratitude after he announced his retirement.

The Future Business Leaders of America began their industrious year by having officers installed by Mr. Tom Oyster, a board member. Recognized as the state's largest club, in terms of membership, the group entered its' tenth year under the direction of Mrs. Dorothy Davis.

In the early fall, the FBLA sponsored a canned food drive and donated the collection to a needy family in Frederick as a Thanksgiving gift. They also presented Mr. Paul Kline with a gift of appreciation upon his retirement.

Various other activities included: bake sales to raise money for the Heart Fund and the annual trip to business agencies in Washington, D.C., Christmas caroling, a skating party, and a party for the patients of Reeder's Nursing Home.

FFA Expands, Stresses Involvement

Involvement was the key word for the Future Farmers of America. The largest club in the school, supporting over 170 members, kept busy year round with shows, contests, and activities.

Advisors, Mr. Edward Mayne and Mr. Garald Young, accompanied large groups of members to the Harrisburg Farm Show, the Hagerstown Fair, where they presented an award winning booth, and to the Farm Bureau Convention. FFA members also participated in many school and community related projects. They produced the Arbor Day program for elementary school students, held a community farm show, a flag raising ceremony as part of National FFA Week, a canned food drive for needy families, and hosted the State FFA Alumni Convention.

To raise money for these numerous activities, the group sold over 2000 cases of citrus fruit, FFA calendars, and sponsored a spaghetti dinner, open to the public. As part of the organization, many members studied long hours for local, state, and national contests. This time was well spent as the group won the Hoards Dairyman contest, received a bronze in the National BOAC projects, and a silver National Chapter award. However, their year was not all work and no play. They joined together for hours of fun during bowling and skating parties, picnics and dances.

Industrious Students Aide Schools

Many BHS students are involved in a unique experience; they serve as student aides in the high school, middle and elementary schools.

High school aides are involved mainly with the clerical aspects of our school. They answer phones, file materials, sort books, grade papers, and perform other tasks to assist the faculty members.

Middle and elementary school aides work primarily with the younger scholars. They are given the opportunity to teach and contribute to the growth of the students' basic skills.

Since many of these aides are interested in teaching as a career after graduation, this gives them an orientation into the field.

Varsity Club Alters Policies

Football and basketball players, baseball and softball members, runners, cheerleaders and statisticians are all different types of students who compose the Varsity Club. This organization is devoted to the needs of the athletic programs and its varied members. Each year the club sells an item to raise some much needed money.

This year high school record books were sold which contained records for all sport fields and with many local schools listed, including BHS. They also held a candy sale to further boost their treasury. The end of the year Varsity banquet was held May 23 at the Hagerstown Elks Club. Following dinner the guest speaker Mr. Walter Barr, Shepherd College football coach, was introduced and the program began. Many athletes, coaches and helpers were recognized for their outstanding contributions to the athletic program.

A keypoint of the year was the groups decision to revise the lettering procedure. In the future each first year letterer will receive a letter jacket and various emblems of the year. Due to this change and the expense it will incur, the banquet will be done away with. Plans are still rough, but the majority of students feel the new system is more beneficial to each individual.

Senioresses Display Puff Power

Feminine football took to the field November 18, as the annual powderpuff game got under way. The game was sponsored by the cheerleaders under the organization of Miss Rose Andres. Unseasonably warm weather aided the Senioresses in their 26-0 victory.

Swift seniors, Rosemary Buck, Tina Harnish, and Bonnie Jo Ingram ran for four touchdowns, despite the defensive efforts of Underette, Darlene Angle. Hard hits and quick tackles, displayed by both teams, made for an exciting, action-packed game.

Soccer Boots First Season

Intramural soccer kicked off its first year at BHS October 10. Interested players signed up with Coach Clayton Anders and were divided into four teams: the Dips, Cosmos, Strikers, and Kicks. The Dips came out on top with a 6-3 winning record.

The season reached its climax at the first annual all-star soccer game, November 14, periods six and seven. The game involved the most skilled players chosen from the four teams. The best of the Dips and Cosmos composed the East team, and the Kicks and Strikers made up the West team. The East team dominated the fast-paced game and booted their way to a 2-0 victory. Curtis Berry and Bob Rhodes hustled to score the only two goals in the game.

Student Struggle To Win Tournament

Duane Ventimiglia, Julius Snow, David Teays, and Maria Zientek give it all they've got.

Students became fiercely competitive as homeroom teams were pitted against each other in the annual tug-of-war tournament. Homerooms pulled together to capture the coveted championship.

Held in the mornings at 8:30, the pulls drew large crowds, as students cheered their fellow classmates on to victory. Mrs. Thomas' homeroom team, the English Muffins, proved their strength by defeating the senior class champions to win the school title.

FHA Improves Domestic Abilities

The members of the Future Homemakers busily worked on many different crafts during the past year. These skilled students finished afghans, plant hangers and other projects for sale at the Valley Mall during June. To raise funds for club activities, members sold Christmas candles during the fall and held monthly bake sales at the school. Part of these funds were used to prepare food baskets given to needy families at Thanksgiving.

HCC Benefits School, Community

The health Careers club provided many greatly appreciated school and community services. The members payed a monthly visit to the nearby Reeder's Nursing Home, bringing both smiles and cheer to the residents. They held their annual Christmas party in December and sponsored the February sweetheart dance. To raise the necessary funds for these club projects, the members participated in a stationary sale during the month of November. This organization is unique in that it holds a candlelight service for the installation of new officers, and a mother-daughter picnic.

Ambitious Students Learn Job Skills

DECA prepares BHS students for careers and post-graduation plans. Training activities included a Leadership Retreat at Summit Lake Camp, the sale of Mastercraft bits to raise funds, and bowling and pizza parties.

During March the group traveled to the DECA State Career Development Conference where they received a first place award in food marketing owner manager level, and fourth place in the food marketing master employee level. Mike Lohman, chapter president, was recognized for his outstanding leadership.

The Venice Inn was the scene of the annual Employer-Employee Banquet held April 10. Seventy members and employers were in attendance as special awards were presented.

Spirit Soars To New Peaks

Spirit was on the rise October 2-6 as BHS began the 1978 Homecoming festivities. The extended five-day spirit week sent spirit and participation to new peaks. The cheerleaders and the Student Government combined tradition with many original ideas to make the week a tremendous success.

The many varied activities of spirit week began quietly as students participated in shut-up day. Students also showed spirit by donning '50's style clothing, dressing up, sporting the colors of teams defeated earlier in the season, and wearing the traditional blue and white of BHS. The halls, ramp, and lockers were decorated in support of the team.

The student body roared with enthusiasm at the pep rally Friday, sixth and seventh periods. The class of 1980 walked away with both the spirit drum and the spirit stick, which was awarded for the greatest participation during the week. Evidently the pep rally psyched the players, for the Warriors came off the field with a 42-0 victory.

During half-time the princesses, Connie Knight, Edwina Babington, Jody Miller, Brenda Mongan, and Kendra Williams were driven onto the field in beautiful antique convertibles and the Homecoming festivities climaxed as Kendra Williams was crowned the 1978 Homecoming Queen. Bonnie Hawbaker, Boonsboro's first Homecoming Queen, had the honor of crowning Kendra, and a bouquet of roses was presented to the new queen by Sally Weaver, last year's queen. Kendra was honored by a Student Government sponsored dance held after the game.

Seniors Stage Insane Comedy

A few talented members of the class of '79 performed a two act sparse entitled "The Nut Factory" on March 22 and 23. Under the advisement of Mrs. Trudy Schindel and the direction of Kevin Boyer, the students placed themselves in comical roles and produced an enjoyable play.

The play centered around the McNutt sisters, who managed a halfway house for disturbed teens, and their intruding aunt and cousin. Chris McNutt persuades her boyfriend Barry to imitate the resident psychiatrist in hopes of fooling the man from the bank, who brings funds to maintain the house. Mrs. Cromwell and Olivia portray the villains who want to take over the institution for personel gain.

Problems arose when several cast members became ill during the last days of rehearsals.

Luckily, Mrs. Schindel was able to recruit replacements, who though nervous, quickly learned their parts and kept the play intact.

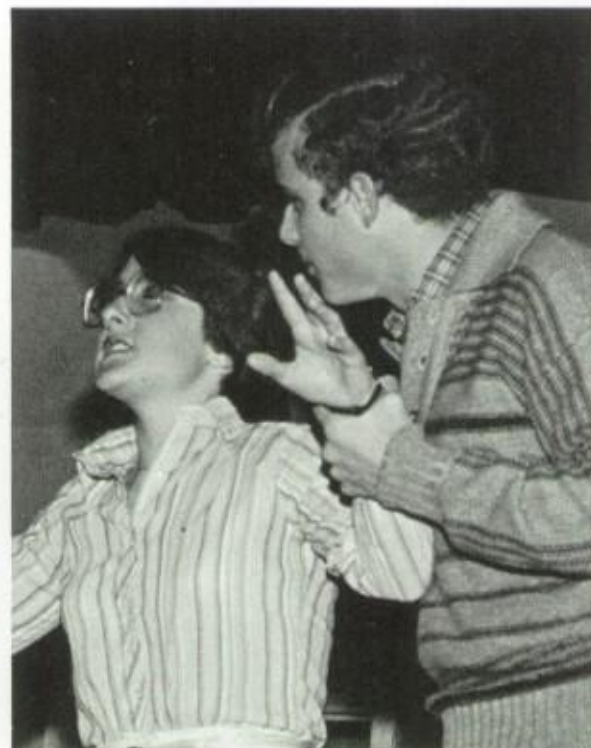

Melinda Noble questions Jon Roll's knowledge of psychology.

The entire cast meets on stage for their final bow.

Doug Frushour plays dumb as stage father, Gary Allen, trys to explain his chores.

Teresa Huffer creates a problem while Annette Falck helps J Brown with his sore neck.

Players Display Theatrical Skills

A variety of talents aided the freshmen class in capturing the Best Play award.

Dawn Denham is terrified by the "voices" she hears.

Jeff Rasmussen sparks enthusiasm with his zany antics.

Pam Muller, Liz Holmes and Allan Stotler portray a "ghostly" family.

Mr. Gene Ford congratulates Joe Sheedy and Doug Kave after the performance.

Melinda Noble skillfully applies stage make-up to Tammy Moffatt.

Allan Stotler becomes absorbed in his play.

Dawn Denham portrayed an emotional woman and received the award for Best Actress, and Keith Jonak, as her husband, received an Honorable Mention.

Joe Sheedy ponders over his next move.

Dale Beard and Wes Moats show their affection to their "Mama", Michele Moser.

The emotional, but slightly humorous drama of a lonely young man searching for a home came to a crashing climax in the freshman class play, "Stolen Identity". The frosh took the title of Best Play in the annual Tournament of Plays held November 21 and 22. Under the direction of Annette Falck and Doug Frushour, it was the first freshman play to receive this award. Other honors were handed to the group including Best Actor, Joe Sheedy and Best Supporting Actor, Doug Kave. Holly Rowland also received an Honorable Mention.

"The Ghost of Pumkin' Holler," the sophomore play, was directed by Teresa Huffer and Melinda Noble. The story of a hillbilly family and an old fortune hunter added a bit of spice to the evening. Sophomores, Lori Haines received the award for Best Supporting Actress and Michelle Moser received an honorable Mention for her role.

Dawn Denham captured the title of Best Actress for her portrayal of an emotional woman in the Junior class play, "Voices". Keith Jonak, as her husband, received an Honorable Mention. This play told the story of two spirits stranded in a young family's home and was directed by Kris Siponen and Andrea Riner.

Lori Haines was the cute, little hillbilly.

Play casts are happy with the results of the judging.

Students Sing And Dance

The music of a pipe organ, the jingle of the ticket taker's change, bright lights, and dancing girls; these attractions set the stage as the curtain opened for the 1979 presentation of "Carousel". Held the evenings of April 25 and 27, under the talented direction of Mr. Gene Ford, the efforts of many students climaxed in the 4th annual musical production.

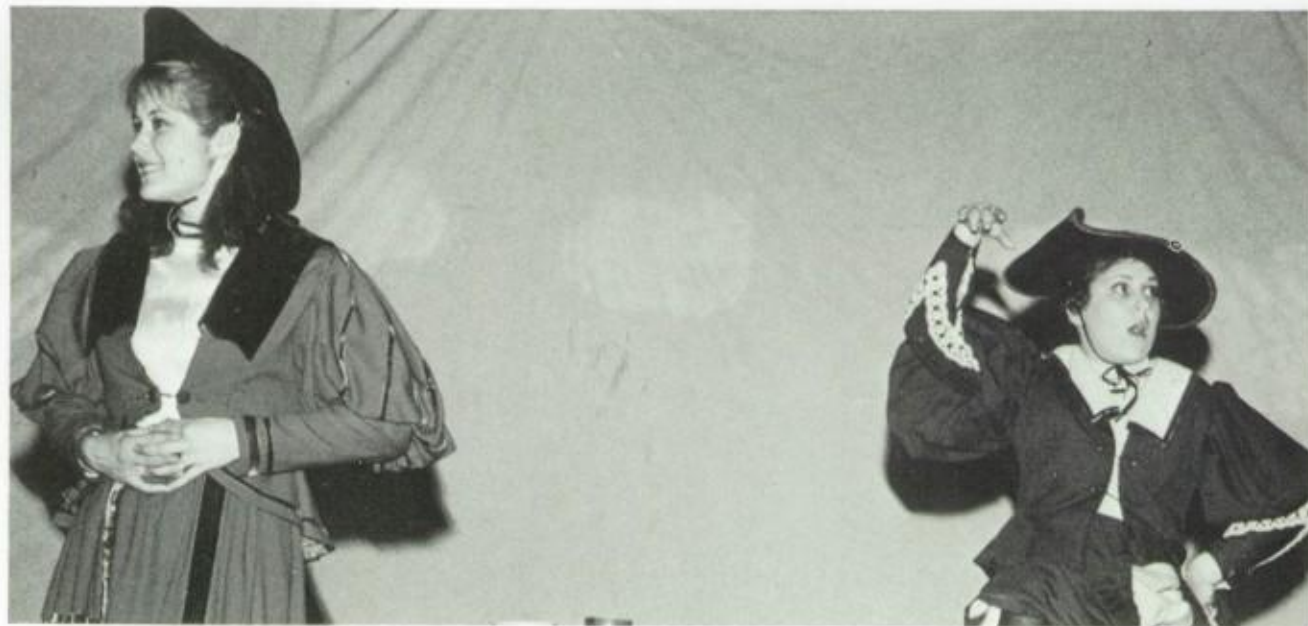

Approximately 45 chorus and drama club members rehearsed for months prior to the show to perfect their vocal and theatrical skills. With the aid of New York costumes, a classic carnival carousel, and unique sets, the stage was transformed to another time and place. The story itself centered on the life of a carnival barker, who fails to make a good life for his wife and family. Whether on the beach, by a farmhouse, or at the carnival grounds, the cast succeeded in portraying a true-to-life illusion.

Spoofs And Stars Highlight Talent Show

The activities of the junior class were climaxed in the presentation of its annual talent show. Held January 25, the funfilled show spoofed television programs and commercials. Approximately 40 juniors worked under the supervision of Mrs. Pat Lemkuhl to make the project a success. Twenty acts exhibited a variety of talent presentations.

The judging resulted in a tie for the vocal prize between Dawn Denham, and Deana and Renee Massie. Ting Kongkeattikul captured the instrumental prize and the variety award was presented to the JV cheerleaders for their dynamic pompon routine.

Due to snow and foul weather only one stage rehearsal was possible, but the show went on to be a tremendous success for the class of '80.

Members of the Intone Grownails, Jeff Seabright, Kevin Boyer, J. Brown Brian Merson, and Tom Witmer captured the audience with their version of "Runaround Sue".

Keith Jonak and Renee Massie perform some back-up music.

Whirling across the stage, Brenda Doran combined many dance and gymnastic steps in her performance.

Paula Shobe wooed many hearts with her medly of Judy Garland hits.

Deane Massie of only half of the act which took the vocal award.

Missy Sandy, Christy Spielman and Deanna Shifler portrayed the legend of King Tut in their skit.

In a takeoff of the "$1.98 Beauty Contest", Angie Frushour crowns Dave Black as winner.

Ting Kongkeattikul composed his own song and stole the instrumental title.

Mrs. Pat Lemkuhl makes a few last minute checks on the script.

Tying for the vocal award, Dawn Denham performed a medley of songs from "Chorus Line" intermingled with an original dialogue.

As part of a vocal group, Cindy Pre-graves had the audience spellbound.

Lori Lockner and Lisa Hines twirl away to "Give Me Some Lovin".

Wining and dining, dancing and romancing were all a part of the excitement of prom night. This grand activity, anticipated by everyone from the beginning of the year, finally arrived the evening of May 11. "Summer in the South" proved to be a delight for all in attendance, despite the evening's downpour. Under the watchful eyes of Mrs. Pat Lemkuhl, industrious juniors worked long hours to prepare fountains and flowers which decorated the Venice Ballroom.

The local band, Summer, provided the dancing music along with a spectacular light and floor show. Following tradition, each senior was presented a gift by the junior class during their final promenade to the class song, "The Long and Winding Road".

Awards Assembly

Outstanding athletes, scholars, and teachers were rewarded for their hard work and dedication at two awards assemblies, held May 24 and 28. As the student body looked on, the newly elected student government officers were sworn in by their predecessors. Mr. Carl Brunner was the recipient of the 4th annual Teacher of the Year award, presented to him by the student council, for his many years of service and his active involvement with the students of BHS. Amy Boyce again received the Atwood Penmanship Award, and Jean Pryor, the Atwood Spelling Award.

Following tradition, the class of '79 solemnly filed out of the gym to the music of their class song, to be replaced by the class of '80.

Carol Stouffer presents Mr. Carl Brunner with his much deserved "Teacher of the Year" award.

Laura Rasmussen swears Wayne Lowery in as next year's Student Council secretary.

Coach Don Lewis presents letters to Steve Hoover, Troy Danner, Jim Root, Henry Stiles and Todd Garver.

Coach Wayne Ridenour gives an award to outstanding athlete Dale Beard.

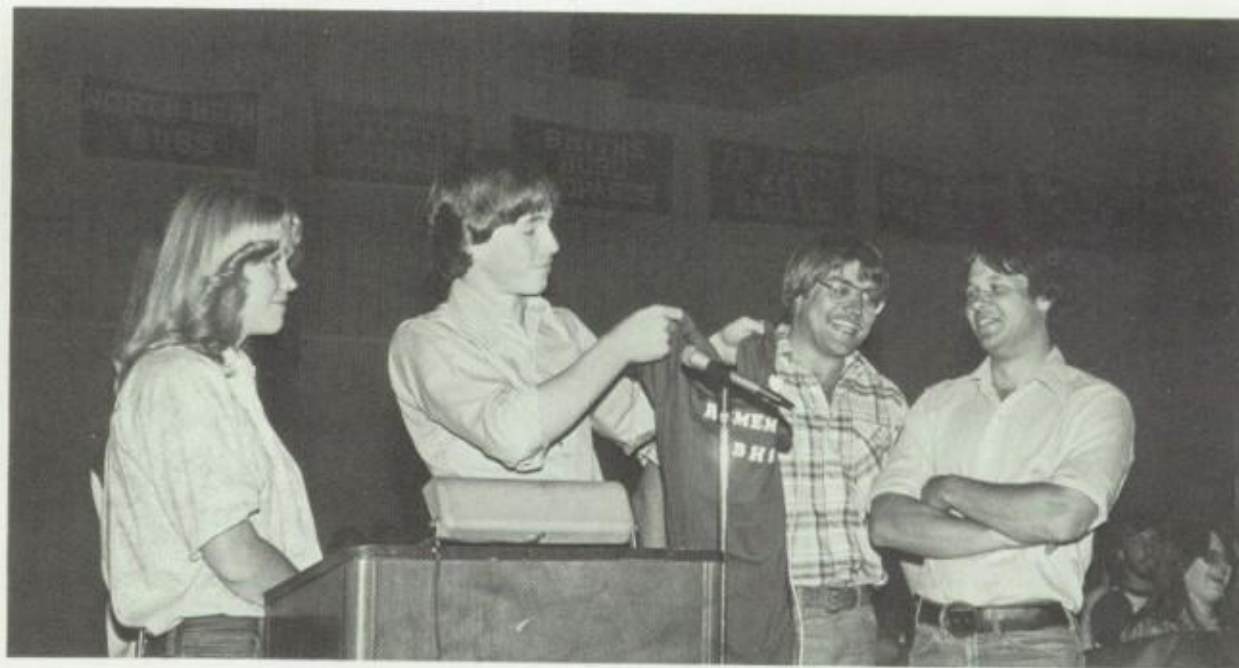

Delores Stouffer and Twanna Keller present an award to Mrs. Shirley Vaughn.

Accents Accomplishments

Miss Rose Andres receives flowers from JV Cheerleaders.

Graduation Brings An End To

The Class of '79 displayed mixed emotions as they began practice for baccalaureate and commencement exercises. Caps and gowns could be found throughout the school as the seniors spent their last few hours at BHS.

On the evening of June 4, senior class members entered the gymnasium together for the last time. Following the invocation by Rev. Marvin Kline, the class valedictorians spoke to their fellow graduates; and senior class president, Kevin Boyer, presented the class gift, a computer, to Mr. Joseph Robeson. The much anticipated moment then arrived as class members received their diplomas, then tearfully sang the alma mater, and filed out as graduates of BHS.

Varsity Teamwork Boosts Winning Season

The Warriors opened a winning season with a tremendous 26-6 victory over the Class A North High Hubs. With 312 total offensive yards gained, Boonsboro more than doubled North's yardage. The victory sparked the Warriors onto five more wins, and despite numerous injuries, the team ended their season with a 6-4 record.

A key note in the team's success was the spectacular rushing of Jeff Taulton. Jaunting 219 yards in the Walkersville game, Taulton broke the school record of 950 yards, and established the new record of 1217 yards rushed.

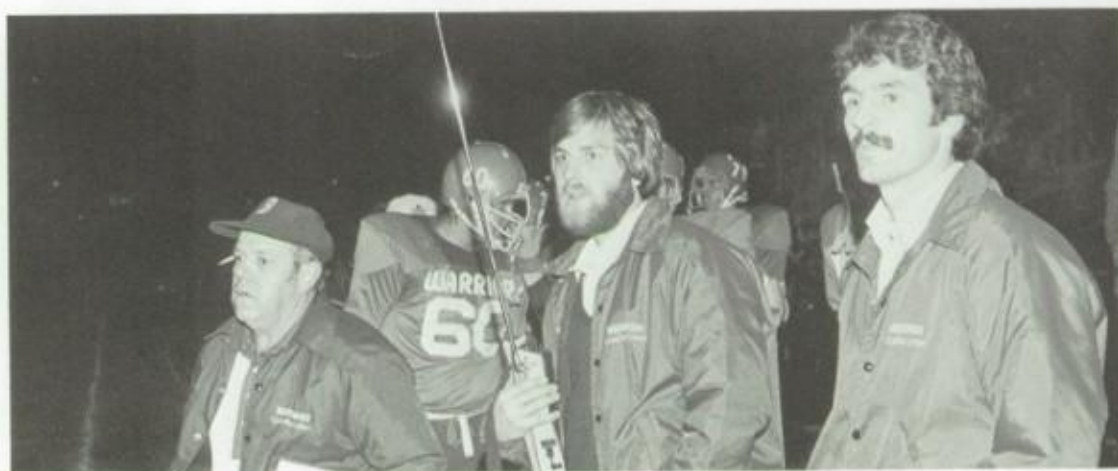

Ground game and defense provided a winning season. Mark Kaetzel, Henry Stiles, and Brian Merson led the team with the highest number of tackles. Kaetzel played his part well on defense, totaling 112 hits for the season, with Merson and Stiles following with 83 and 84, respectively. The strong, on the ground, offense moved the ball a total of 1,845 yards, with Jeff Taulton averaging 5.9 yards per carry. The team displayed their determination and fortitude in every game throughout the entire season.

JV's Face New Challenges, Defeat Arch Rivals

This year the JV football team achieved their best record in ten years, a 6-1-1 winning season. They strove for teamwork, and developed a tough defense.

With more freshmen starters than in previous years, the gridders buckled down and practiced diligently to develop a hard-hitting, skilled line. The offense was improved and displayed a sound ground game.

The season was highlighted by victories over two long-time rivals. Williamsport and Smithsburg. Impressive stats and much outstanding effort proved the young Warriors to be victorious.

Cross Country Runners Capture Titles

Sixteen boys, headed by captain Gary Allen, started off their successful season August 21, with two practices a day. To add some variety, most training was done off campus at such places as the Appalacian Trail, the C & O Canal, Hagerstown Junior College, and Greenbriar State Park.

Long mileage practices aided the boys cross country team in winning the Frank Keyser Invitational, the MVAL crown, and the Districk I Class C Championship. The season concluded with a second place in the State Class C meet.

Runners anxiously await the start of the meet.

Girls Claim MVAL Championship

Girls' cross country entered its second year under the direction of Coach Dwight Scott. Ten girls came out, and Judy Phillips was selected team captain. Practice was held everyday from August 21 until November 11.

Dedication and long, hard workouts provided the girl's cross country team with a 3-2 dual meet record. The girls placed second in the Frank Keyser Invitational and clindhed the MVAL crown. Team depth placed the girls second in the District I Class C cross country meet held at North High. The highlight of the season came November 11, when the girls placed second in the State Class C meet.

Entering the season with primarily a junior squad, the BHS hoopsters displayed their young ability and ended the season with an 8-15 record.

During the holidays the Warriors competed with Hancock and St. Maria Goretti, and placed second in the Ken Daniels Christmas Tournament, held at St. Maria Goretti High School.

Throughout the season the team played a primarily defensive game, using the man-to-man technique and at times shifting to zone. They displayed their high level of determination by twice beating the rival Clearspring, once in an exhausting double overtime, and defeating Brunswick, North Carroll and FSK. The BHS vs. Williamsport clash seemed to be the most exciting of the season, when after various conflicts throughout the game, the Warriors left the floor with little over four minutes of play left in the game.

Junior, Eddie Penn emerged as the teams high scorer with a total of 432 points for the year. He also broke the foul shooting record of 73% previously set by Joe Himes, by making 104 out of 133 shots for a 78.2% from the line. Tying Eddie with 45 steals Mike Reese also accounted for 379 points and became the leading rebounder with a total of 255.

JV's Succeed In Heated Battles

The boys JV basketball squad ended their strenuous season with a balanced 10 wins, 10 losses, record. Coach Wayne Ridenour again helped the boys improve their techniques and planned each game's plays. The JV's played a tough, exciting game, and many losses were only by a small margin. Superior ball handlers and a good defensive form kept the opponents constantly on the move and accounted for many victories, both on the road and on the home court. The team's top scorer, Dale Beard, canned 32 out of 59 shot attempts to achieve a 56.4% and a total of 302 points. Dale also contributed the most steals — 64, and assists — 40 for the year. Paul Smothers controlled the boards with 66 offensive and 88 defensive rebounds. Jeff Rasmussen was close behind, grabbing 57 offensive and 91 defensive rebounds throughout the season.

A superior attitude and the mutual respect between team members aided the Freshman basketball team in a fulfilling season.

Despite much inclement weather, and the cancellation or rescheduling of many games, the squad pushed on for a 4-9 season. Coach Allan Greijack considered the boys as the best pressing team he had ever coached. Even though there was a three week period where no games were played, most games were lost by about five points. High scorer of the year, Mike Conway, averaged 12 points a game and Kirk Stiles captured the most rebounds during the season.

Warriorettes Battle Rival Opponents

Taking advantage of a weak defense, senior, Emma McAfee, shoots a lay-up.

Under the experienced coaching of Mrs. Shirley Vaughn, the girl's varsity basketball team faced a trying season. Although the team put up a valient effort, resulting in many close games, the girls ended the season with a 6-20 record.

Despite the tough opposition of the season, the varsity warriottes had several star players. Sherie Carder led the team in scoring and rebounding with a total of 303 points and 208 rebounds. Bonnie Jo Ingram grabbed the ball for a total of 60 steals and 113 assists.

In an effort to turn the season around, the team rallied to defeat area rivals, Brunswick and Williamsport. Also, due to the large number of junior players, the young team gained experience needed for a winning season next year.

Walkerville's defensive five converge to block Bernadette Kaufmann's shot.

Senior, Bonnie Jo Ingram, put the ball up for a score.

The warriorettes seem pleased with the action of the as they view it from the sideline.

Under the new coaching strategies of Mr. Clayton Anders, the girl's JV basketball squad opened their season with four straight victories over area rivals. By defeating both North and South twice and other strong teams such as FSK, Catocin, and Walkersville, the girls were able to draw a 13-5 season record.

The team had many strong ball handlers and a good defensive form which aided them in their victories. Leading scorer and rebounder for the squad was Sandy Anderson, who averaged nine rebounds and 13 points per game. Kerri Knight, the second highest scorer, tallied 73 assists and 150 steals. Newcomer, Deena Mose, had the least number of turnovers for a starter.

Kerri Knight dribbles down the court for the score.

Teresa Pitt attempts to give the JV's possession of the ball by leaping for the tip-off.

Runners Capture Indoor Crown

Achieving the best record in thirteen years, the boys indoor track team soared to capture the District I and IV Championship titles. Strenuous workouts and the perfection of many various skills aided the squad tremendously. During the 1978-79 season they remained undefeated in both triangular and quadrangular meets.

Intense training, under the coaching skills of Mr. Dwight Scott, helped the squad develop better techniques and improve many of their times. Mark Smith set a new record for the fifty yard high hurdles with a time of 6.7.

Concentration proves to be Brian Merson's vital asset.

Senior Bob Rhodes utilizes strength as he leaves the starting block.

Warriorettes on The Move

The Warrior Softball team had a good year despite injuries in the team. The team was forced to change the line-up this year due to the injuries of Twanna Keller and Darlene Angle. After a few changes in players positions, Coach Vaughn had the team ready for action. With a season record of 7 wins and 7 losses, the team advanced to the play offs. They won the first 2 games only to lose the third to North Carroll 22 to 2. Missy Sandy pitched in the playoffs and did very well. Even though the season didn't start well, Sherie Carder slammed 7 homeruns in the first five games. She also had the best pitching record. Bonnie Jo Ingram lead the league with a .452 batting average. The team was Class C Region I champs, and is looking forward to next year.

Trackmen Keep Pace With Opponents

Spring sports rarely receive the attention they deserve, yet at BHS the boys track squad is frequently in the news. Many boys devote much of their time and energy to this sport and with Coach Dwight Scott's help, they have polished their skills with expertise.

The runners rallied to beat Middletown, Linganore and the tough Smithsburg squads and capture many local titles. Daily workouts after school and some personal conditioning enabled the team to snare third place in the MVAL meet and second place finishes in the Walkersville Invitational, Glen Smith Relays and District I Class "C" meets.

Senior, Jeff Kline, leaps into his long jump.

BOYS TRACK: First Row: H. Palmer, W. Sommerville, B. Rhodes, M. Reese, J. Kline, G. Allen, G. Schamel, D. Kiracofe, C. Mangum, J. Hubbard. Second: C. Davenport, T. Perkins, W. Souders, J. Female Runners Rally

Stretching, toning muscles and running day after day helped make the girls outdoor track squad a winning team. The girls at BHS have taken a strong hold in the sports field and have no intention of letting loose.

Members of the squad practiced daily, faithfully trying to improve their techniques and records. The squad easily outmatched local rivals such as Linganore, Clearspring and South and placed high in the MVAL, county and District meets. Donna Grim set a new 330 low hurdles record with a time of 48.8. The 440 and mile relay teams also were record breakers, being clocked at 53.5 and 4:24 respectively.

With baton in hand, senior Janie DeLauney, sprints toward the finish line.

Susie Long accompanies senior, Tanja Beachley, in a warm up lap.

Extending her legs helps Sandy Anderson sail in the long jump.

Jan MacMichael begins her leg of the race after a skillful handoff by Kim Violet.

Mrs. Anne Harrison

We cannot bring the past days back
When we were all together
But precious memories and loving thoughts
Will live in our hearts forever.
The time you spent and deeds you did
Were precious to the taker
But there comes a time in all our lives
When we must meet our maker.
And so that time will come we know
When we all shall be together
The precious memories and loving thoughts
Will be shared again, forever.

It's our day, shining day, all our dreams will come through.
As we glide in our stride with the wind,
As we fly away, give a smile from your lips and say,
I am free, yes I'm free, now I'm on my way.

Just
I think I can really sympathize with you
I don't know how long I'm grounded.
fa, but I sure wish I could run again.
You're a really sweet gal, who's in really glad I got to know. God bless you.

Love you

Lisa,

We've had some good times. Remember La Marca's homeroom. I'm sorry we couldn't be in the same homeroom. At least yours is good. Take care and good luck in track. Take care of that knee.

Love ya!
